

TEF Annual Conference 2015

Sustainable Coasts

Balancing socio-economic drivers, whilst preserving coastal habitat & amenity

Sidlaw Suite, West Park Conference Centre, Perth Road, Dundee
Friday 24th April 10 am - 4 pm (registration from 9:30 am)

9:30–10:00

- Registration & Refreshments -

10:00–10:10

TEF Welcome Address

Rob Duck, TEF Chair & Dean, School of the Environment, University of Dundee

Session 1

Strategic planning for the terrestrial & marine environments

Session Chair: Rob Duck, TEF Chair

10:10-10:30

Scotland's First National Marine Plan

Anna Donald, Head of Marine Planning & Strategy, Marine Scotland

10:30-10:50

TAYplan: Strategic Land Use Change

Pamela Ewen, TAYplan Strategic Development Planning Authority Manager

10:50-11:10

Scotland's East Coast Offshore Wind Developments – Progress Update 2015

Naomi Campbell, Offshore Wind Development Manager, The Crown Estate

11:10-11:20

Questions & Discussion

11:20-11:50

Tea/ Coffee Break

Session 2

Multi-scale working towards a sustainable future

Session Chair: Daniel Gilmour, University of Abertay

11:50- 12:10

East Haven, Angus- Working towards a sustainable community

Wendy Murray, East Haven Residents' Association

12:10-12:30

Dundee Waterfront Regeneration Project - Opportunities & Challenges

Allan Watt, Dundee Waterfront Project Director, Dundee City Council

12:30-12:50

A UNESCO Biosphere Region along the Lower Tay?

Martin Price, University of the Highlands & Islands; Chair, UK MAB Committee

12:50-13:00

Questions & Discussion

LUNCH

13:00-14:15

(followed by tea and coffee served in Sidlaw Foyer)

14:15-14:40

Postgraduate Poster Session & Exhibits, Sidlaw Foyer

Universities of Dundee, St Andrews, Abertay, Highlands & Islands & James Hutton Institute.

Session 3

Safeguarding humans, habitats and species

Session Chair: Tom Piper, Community Marine Officer (East Coast), The Crown Estate

14:40-15:00

RNLI Community Lifesaving Plans, Broughty Ferry

Michael Avril, RNLI Community Incident Reduction Manager, Scotland

15:00-15:20

Protecting Tayside's Wildlife

Blair Wilkie, Wildlife Crime Liaison Officer, Tayside; Police Scotland

15:20-15:40

Sustainable Creative Communities: Engaging, Writing and Filming Tayside Spaces

Susan Mains, University of Dundee

15:40-15:50

Questions & Discussion

15:50-16:00

Closing Comments

Anton Edwards, University of the Highlands & Islands