

4

1.5 Irish Angle*THE IRISH WEAVE
EDNA O'BRIEN

Novelist Edna O'Brien in conversation with Emyr Daniel.

DIRECTOR DAVID LLOYD
PRODUCER EMYR DANIEL
HTV Production1.30 Face the Press

ANTHONY HOWARD

A panel of leading journalists come face to face with a figure in the news.

RESEARCH SARAH LOVEBROVE
DAVID McCLURE
DIRECTOR/PRODUCER
JAMES GOLDBY
Tyne Tees Television Production2.0 A Question of EconomicsZEINAB BADAWI
PETER DONALDSON

HOW OTHERS COPE

4.35 Dadarama*DIALOGUE FOR TWO PLAYERSVideo pieces by artists, using the latest electronic techniques. Jude Allen and Ian Bennett engage in a seemingly free dialogue. Writer Stephen Partridge.
PRODUCER ANNA RIDLEY
Annelogue Production5.0 The Amateur NaturalistGERALD DURRELL
LIVING ON THE EDGEContinuing the Worldwise season. Gerald and Lee Durrell show that the teeming life of two seashore habitats — the rocky coast of Jersey and the breathtaking cliffs of Unst, the northernmost of the British Isles — is actually much more ordered than it first appears.CAMERA CHRIS O'DELL
SPECIALIST PHOTOGRAPHY
STEVE DOWNER
DIRECTOR JONATHAN HARRIS
Dorling Kindersley TV/Primedia
Productions/Prizetime TV Co-production5.30 News Summary and Weather followed by eight teams playing for four places at the National Championships at Wembley later this month. Clubs play a best of three series to decide which four winners go forward. Today there's live second half coverage of the day's outstanding game. Commentators Simon Reed, Alton Byrd.

PRODUCER DEREK BRANDON
Cheerleader Production7.15 Fragile Earth
SELVA VERDE — CENTRAL AMERICAN RAINFORESTContinuing the Worldwise season. This film explores the ties which link predators and their prey to a larger organism — the rainforest. For the forest, death is a natural and enriching part of life and it is the predators which help to maintain its astonishing variety. But the interdependence evolved over millions of years is being shattered. For a free Worldwise Action Pack, write to address 1, page 47. ‡WRITER/DIRECTOR PHIL AGLAND
PHOTOGRAPHY RICHARD FOSTER
PRODUCERS PHIL AGLAND,
MICHAEL ROSENBERG
Partridge Productions9.20 Irish Love Stories: The Eagles and the Trumpets

BY JAMES PLUNKETT

In the depressed spiritual and economic state of Ireland after World War Two, the lives of three people come under the writer's eye: Lucy, a small town librarian; Mr Sweeney, an insurance clerk on holiday; and Mr Cassidy, a commercial traveller. Is there an indemnity to be found in real love or a need against the petty tyrannies of life? Music by Jim Lockhart.

Lucy Fidelma O'Dowda
Mr Sweeney Philip O'Sullivan
Mr Cassidy Jim Norton
Higgins Gerry O'Brien
Ellis Fintan McKeownLIGHTING CAMERA PETER DORNEY
DESIGNER LONA MORAN
PRODUCER JOHN LYNCH
DIRECTOR DEIRDRE FRIEL
RTE Production10.20 City General
YOU CAN'T MEASURE GOODWILL

A history of a hospital by the people who work there. Hospitals like the City General in Stoke on Trent have been run on goodwill for years. Porters, plumbers,