Dear Steve,

It now seems very likely, though not entirely certain, that the videowall project - British work only - will be re-staged by Camden Arts and Entertainment at the Diorama between Nov 26 and Dec 3. The private view will be on Saturday Nov 25.

The uncertainty is largely due to the matching funds that Camden require from GLA in order to meet Samcom's costs, which are around £5k. The appropriate committee at GLA don't meet until late October, so it will remain touch and go until then.

I'll obviously attempt to obtain the best possible fees from Camden for all the artists involved, but it's likely to be relatively small as they don't have a lot of money spare on this project. I'll keep you informed of all developments on this particular front.

I didn't go back to Den Haag on the Wednesday, so I didn't pick up a daily sheet with the 21 TV pieces info. Sorry about that. Perhaps Jez did?

Pass on my regards to Jane.

Best wishes,

Yours Sincerely,

Eddie Berg
Director
