

1976.

Monkey's Birthday

a film by

David Larcher

Monkey's Birthday is based on material filmed during a journey to the East last year. David Larcher has used extensive editing, overlaying and separation of the original material. The film lasts for six hours, and will be shown continuously from 11am to 5pm in the Upper Gallery. Coffee and food will be available during the day

11am Saturday 29 May

admission free

Museum of Modern Art

30 Pembroke Street Oxford