Dear Alan,

19:4:90 Television Interventions

I hope all is going well with your work and life generally. Just thought I would write to you and let you know what was happening generally regarding the works.

They are due for a second transmission this Autumn - although unfortunately Waldemar is still unable to supply dates, however as soon as we have date confirmation, I will let you know.

You may also be pleased to hear that all the works will be shown at the World Wide Video Festival (Den Haag) in Holland on 1st and 2nd October '90, as part of the Art Market staged there. We have also entered all the works into the Australian International Video Festival (November 1-11 '90) and are waiting to hear whether they will be accepted.

Also we have just heard from Montreal, as they want to show all the works as part of the Festival du Nouveau Cinema et de La Video, which is 18th - 28th October.

We also plan to enter the works into other festivals, which I will notify you of in due course.

This is all wonderful exposure for the works, the project and of course yourselves, however as you may be aware there are actually no fees involved.

However, the British Council have bought a short compilation of some of the works, for their London Library, which helps to offset some of the festival costs, and we hope that some of the Council's offices abroad may also purchase further copies.

I will let you know further progress as items arise.

Best wishes,

Jane Rigby.
